

Two young watermen
Sailing out Cambridge creek
One dark and windy day
Upon their old wood crabbing skiff
They sailed on their way
When all at once a mighty
Red eyed black cloud
They saw sailing in the Sky
Like a ball of hot black fire
Carrying the souls
Of jumping crying preachers
Barry Wyatt Jr.